aride without prefudice, at the request of Mr. Farwell.

The senate then proceeded to the consideration of the election bill, the floor being taken by Mr. Colquitt.

Mr Wilson, of Maryland, made a legal and constitutional argument against the bill.

Mr. Vance also spoke against the more

Mr. Vance also spoke against the measure. He said it was once more intended to resurect the carcass of dead sectionalism by the Republican party, so that it might once more grasp by it political power. It was framed for the taking possession of all the election machinery of the Democratic states, so that fraud might be committed by Republican agents. It was intended ted by Republican agents. It was intended once more to subject the people of the south to the domination of their recent slaves. Mr. Vance then criticized the bill in detail. In conclusion he spoke of the growing good will between the races in the south, and said that the man that would disturb that condition was an enemy to both races.

At the close of Mr. Vance's speech, the vice-president announced that the question was on Mr. Gray's amendment to strike out the house clause in section 7.
Mr. Hale said if they could get a vote on Harris-You ill hardly get a vot on it this evening, I reckon.

Mr. Butler spoke in support of his amendment, providing that the supervisors, canvassers, and other election officers are to be regarded as ministerial, and not as indical officers.

Mr. Hoar opposed the amendment.

The senate went into executive session, and soon adjourned.

A lively debate ensued, in which the marting of pensions was involved.

The threatened deficiency, said several bemocratic members, made it unadvisable to expend money for unfacessary objects. The motion was lost—yeas, 90; mays, 108. Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, from the committee on ways and means, reported the Flower joint resolution, extending the bonded period from February I to July 1. There being a disposition on the part of Mr. Culbertson, of Texas, to debate the measure, Mr. McKinley withdrew it. Adjourned.

WINDOM'S SCHEME

The Measure Outlined by the Secretary to Relieve the Financial Stringenoy.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Republicar senatorial cancus committee met this morning to consult with Secretary Windom, respecting the formulation of the dom, respecting the formulation of the inancial relief measure, with which duty the committee was charged by the last cancus. The secretary was accompanied by Mr. Leech, director of the miss. The Sherman and Plumb bills were discussed, and Secretary Windom was asked for his relief on them.

and Secretary Windom was asked for his opinion on them.

He endorsed the proposition to reduce the compulsory holdings of United States bonds by national banks, and commended the proposed issue of 2 per cent bonds. Regarding the proposition to purchase the surplus of silver now in the country, the secretary took positive grounds in favor of the purchase, as means of subsections.

to a sub-committee, consisting of Messrs Sherman, Allison, Aldrich, Plumb and Teller.

The sub-committee met, and reached a decision, which was promptly ratified by the full committee. The measure will be submitted to the full cancustonight. The main features of the measure as agreed main features of the measure as agreed upon, are:

A provision for the purchase of the twelve million silver surplus within one year, the purchase on this account not to exceed $3,000,000 worth of bullion in any one month, in addition to the purchases of four and a haif millions per month as now required by law; the issue of two per cent bonds, not to exceed $100,000,000 in amount, and the purchases of sufficient silver halbonds, not to exceed $100,000,000 in amount, and the purchase of sufficient silver bullion, in addition to the foregoing requirements, to make good the deficiency in the national bank circulation, whenever the circulation falls below $180,000,000, by the circulation fails below $180,000,000, by the issue of treasury notes based upon the bullion thus purchased.

In case bullion sufficient to meet this deficiency cannot be obtained the deficiency is to be made good by the issuance of simple treasury notes. The bill will also contain a clause providing that when the price of silver shall for each year remain constantly at or above the inval. constantly at or above the legal par with gold, any holder of bullion may deposit it with treasury and have it coined into standard silver dollars, or receive treasury notes therefor.

No action was taken on the matter; but the committee is unardinously in favor of reducing the compulsory holding of bonds by the national banks. The report outlined above does not meet the unanimous approval of the full committee.

THE NIGHT CAUCUS. WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Republican senatorial caucus to night was inconclusive so far as concerns the main purpose—agree-so far as concerns the main purpose—agreement upon a scheme of financial legislation. The report of the cancus committee was presented and discussed fully. The two per cent bond project was eliminated in short order, fueling few friends.

The $12,000,000 builion purchase provision was discussed, but final action was taken on neither this, nor any of the other propositions, owing to lack of time.

The discussion showed the willingness of a strong majority of the senators to increase purchases of silver, probably to the extent of $7,000,000. The report of the committee went over for further action at another cancus, to be held in a day or two. committee went over for further action at another cancus, to be held in a day or two. The elections bill was not discussed, but it will be allowed to keep its place at least until the next cancus meeting.

The close of the police had been killed. The casual-ties were the result of an attempt to arrest Sitting Bull.

Mr. Lemmon testified that he had never recommendation of the commissionar Farm the Lemmon testified that he had never recommended to Commissioner Raum the appointment of any person in the pension office. He had never endorsed but one note for Raum, and that was on the Bank of the Republic for $12,000. Mr. Cooper asked about Mr. Itaum's financial transactions with the Citizens bank, of which Lemmon was a director. He wanted to know how much of Raum's paper had been discounted there, and by whom endorsed. Mr. Lemmon declined to give the names of the endersers, and denied that he had used his influence to secure the discounting of Raum's paper.

IMPORTS IN BOND.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The house committee on ways and means today unanimously ordered a favorable report on the Flower resolution extending the bonded period for goods imported previous to October 1, from Feb. 1, to July 1, 1891.

The resolution was modified at the instance of Mr. McKinley, so as to read as follows:

Provided, that any imported merchandise deposited in bond in any public or private bonded warehouse, having been so deposi-ted prior to October 11, 1890, may be with drawn for consumption at any time prior to July 1, 1-91, upon the payment of duties

THE NEWS AT WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Indian Commissioner Morgan this evening received the following message from Indian Agent Mc-Laughlin, at Standing Rock:
"The Indian police arrested Sitting Bull at his cump forty miles northwest of the agency, this morning at daylight. His followers attempted his release and fight-ing at once commenced. Four policemen were killed and three wounded. Six Indians were killed including Sitting Bull, and his son Crow Foot, and several others wounded. The police were sur-rounded for some time, but sustained their ground until relieved by troops who now have possession of Sitting Bull's camp and property. Sitting Bull's indowers (proba-bly 100) deserted their families and field west for the Grand River. The police behaved nobly, and great credit is due them.

Commissioner Morgan showed this telegram to the president late this evening.

He said he regarded Sitting Bull as the great disturbing element in his tribe, and now that he is out of the way, he hoped the difficulties there would soon be checked without further bloodshed.

The war department has no advices regarding the fight today at Sitting Bull's amp. An Associated Press reporter com-nunicated the first news of it to General Schoffield and Secretary Proctor.

General Schoffield said it was not possible to predict the result of Sitting Bull's death, or the effect it would have upon the hostiles. He regretted that blood had been shed, but he hoped for favorable re-

Ruger states that all necessary steps have been taken to intercept them if possible.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—A report of Indian Agent McLaughlin to the commissioner of Indian Agent McLaughlin to the commissioner of Indian affairs has been received here. It details a visit of the agent to the camp of Sitting Bull, the last visit made by a white man to that camp. McLaughlin says he arrived at the camp on Saturday last, when a ghost dance was in full swing. He sought out Sitting Bull, and told him of the uselessness of continuing the dancing. He told him how it was abusing the confidence of the great white father who had forgiven him for his past offenses; that the Messiah was not coming, and that the best thing the Indians could do was to go back to the agency.

Sitting Bull said he would give up the dance on one condition, and that was, that SITTING BULL AND THE MESSIAH.

dance on one condition, and that was, that the agent should go with him from camp to camp in the endeavor to ascertain where the prophecy started that the Messiah was coming. If McLaughlin could prove was coming. If MoLaughlin could prove that it started with some human agency, then Sitting Bull would be convinced that the ghost dance was folly. If he could not so prove, then the Indians should be allowed to continue in the dance, and their organization for the reception of the Messiah and their reconquest of their lands. McLaughlin says he labored for two hours with Sitting Bull, and finally convinced him that it was best to take no basty action, but to consider the matter well. He would give him three days in which to think over the matter, and would then expect him to visit him at the agency then expect him to visit him at the agency and have a long final talk over the matter. Sitting Bull consented to this. The three days would have been up tomorrow.

BRITISH GRAIN.

LONDON, Dec. 15 .- The Mark Lane Ex-LONDON, Dec. 15.— The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trand, says: Wheat is weak and the inquiry are limited. Prices of foreign wheat is lower, except for Russians, which are firm owing to the ice blockade in the Black sea. Corn is in increased supply, with strong demand. Mixed American is quoted at 27s. English wheats are slow, at unchanged prices. Foreign wheats were steady today. Peices for corn were sustained.

MEETING OF RAILWAY PRESIDENTS IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

A Plan Adopted to Secure Harmony in Future Efforts to Sustain Traffic Rates.

Scenes and Incidents of the Struggle Now in Progress in Ireland Between Parnell and His Enemies.

An English Correspondent Expresses the Opinion that the Uncrowned King Will Lose - Another Statement From the Irish Delegates in Regard to Money Mattera

New York, Dec. 15.—The meeting of presidents of railroads west of Chicago, called for the purpose of forming a western association, went into session at 10:30 o'clock today at J. Pierrepont Morgan's residence, No. 2:9 Madison avenue. At that hour there were present represents ative of all the roads that agreed to respond to the call. There was no represent ative of the Chicago & Alton present, nor were the Vanderbill lines represented. Before the meeting Mr. Morgan stated to the reporters that whatever information they should decide to make public would be given out at the office of Drexell, Morgan & Co.

Among the gentlemen present were Jay Gould, C. P. Huntington, Russell Sage, J. J. McCook, President R. R. Cable, of the Rock Island railroad, President, H. H. Porter, of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad, President Marvin Hughitt, of the Chicago and Northwestern; Vice President M. L. Sykes and W. H. Newman, of the same road, and George M. Pullman.

The meeting lusted until 4 p. m. The preliminary agreement as aiready published was presented by Jay Gould, and Pennsylvania lines for their mutual and competitive interests, and that beneding from the professor received as the result of experiment in the chemical daboratory of the department, which must the result of experiment in the chemical aboratory of the department, which must be of the greatest interest to sorghum growers, and to the people generally. "The recent discoveries made with reference to the manufacture of sorghum sugar by Dr. Wiley and his assistants," Secretary Rusk says, "seem to practically settle the question of the feasibility of the profitable manufacture of sugar per 1,000 gallons of juice of an average of about 19,000 pounds to an average of Morgan stated that after a long consideration a simple but comprehensive plan had been agreed upon by the Vanderbilt and Pennsylvania lines for their mutual and competitive interests, and that, based upon that plan, he had ventured to prepare a paper for the consideration of this meeting, which he proceeded to read.

It was a series of resolutions declaring it to be for the interest of the public and the roads that they co-operate closely with each other to secure uniform, reasonable and stable rates, and such economies in the operation as will insure favorable returns upon the capital invested; that a

Nothing later has been received, but the death of Sitting Bull, and at least five others, seems to be undoubtedly true.

THE CHIEF'S FOLLOWERS.

A repeal to the pioner Press from Dickinson, N. D., gives further confirmation of the news of the Bull's camp. The warriors who escaped are now in retreat, up the Grand river. Information has been received that a band of eight tespees is encamped on the Little Missouri, opposite Pretty Buttes. The fugitives are probably making for that camp. Further resolutions were adopted appointing Roswell Miller, president of the Chicago, Milwankee and St. Paul, to act as chairman of the adjourned meecing, and have power to call the same. It was recommended that the boards of directors of the various roads meet to elect their representatives of the advisory board before January I. The most perfect harmony prevailed at the meeting, and it was generally considered that a great stride to the months of September and October, could be devoted exclusively to the exercation of the juice and the making of the syrup, which can be easily preserved.

extreme ideas formerly entertained by him, when it appeared likely that consti-tional agitation would secure to Ireland the benefits she demanded. But if the in-dependence of the Nationalist party was lost by abandoning Mr. Paraeli, any full measure of relief for Ireland through par-liamentary means would be impossible. During the celebration of mass at Kildy-sart resterday Father Gillian demounced Parnell. While he was speaking the whole congregation filed out of the church, and in mass meeting outside adouted resoand in mass meeting outside adopted reso-intions voting confidence in Parnell.

Parnell drove from Uringford today to Rathdownay. Mesars Davitt and Tanner also started for Rathdownay, with the intention of meeting Parnell publicly. Parnell put up at the Ossory hote. A deputation of farmers from the National league presented an address to him, declaring confidence in him. Parnell replied in a brief speech. brief speech.

During the meeting at the hotel Davits ing his speech he stopped suddenly, and pointing to Parnell, who was just leaving the hotel and entering a carriage to drive off, he shouted: "He is clearing out now! Tally ho! The for has got away!"

This sally was greeted with roars of langhter and cheers. Mr. Parnell and party drove off, avoiding the Market square. At Darrow a crowd of peasants cheered for O'Brien and Dillon, but refused to cheer for Parnell.

THE KILKENNY FIGHT. THE KILKENNY FIGHT.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Daily News correspondent at Kilkenny gives it as his opinion that Parnell's cause is lost. At Rothdownay today two hundred people only listened to Parnell's address, while four thousand attended Davitt's meeting. Mr. Tanner, in his speech, said Parnell had field from town, as he would fiee from Kilkenny next Monday. He (Tanner) would meet him before them, face to face, and would make him repeat that the archbishops. make him repeat that the archbishops, bishops and priests, Sexton, O'Brien and Dillon, were the scum of the earth. Par-nell, he said, in the past had not refused to accept 240,000 from this same scum of the earth. He referred in his speech to the Freemen's Journal. It was greeted with ories of "Down with it!" A priest cried, "To blazes with it!" whereupon Tanner burned a copy of it.

obsies from the Juice without precipitating the sugar."

The known property of alcohol to produce precipitation in the juice was made use of in the further study of this problem, and experiments were undertaken and continued which have finally secured the most satisfactory results. "The difficulties," says the report, "which have been encountered in manufacturing sites, from sor tered in manufacturing sugar from sor-ghum juices have been solely due to the presence of these gums. Their removal, therefore, if it can be accomplished on a manufacturing basis, would at once place sorghum in a high rank as a sugar pro-ducing plant.

sorghum in a high rank as a sugar producing plant."

It seems from the report that not only has this desideratum, the removal of the gums been effected by the process evolved during these experiments, but it has been shown that this can be effected at a cost comparatively trifling in comparison with the results obtained.

The article used in precipitation can almost be wholly recovered by subsequent
